

Brass Lessons for Years 5 and 6 Pupils

We are very pleased that Paul Garner is back offering his fun and popular brass lessons. Paul has a range of instruments which can be loaned to pupils free of charge. Lessons can be group or shared. The cost per shared lesson is £8.00, to be paid half-termly in advance. Paul also asks that parents buy a book, costing £10, which the pupil keeps. If individual lessons are requested, Paul can discuss that with parents, too.

If you are interested, please contact Paul (details below).

Performer

Paul is the founder of the renowned Prime Brass, a Cambridge-based brass ensemble who play regularly in and around Cambridge and beyond. He is also a member of the 78rpm Big Band and Superstition - a 9 piece function band. One of Paul's musical loves is Musical Theatre and he can often be seen in the pit at shows in and around Cambridge.

Educator

Paul is a passionate teacher with over 40 years teaching experience. Since graduating, Paul has taught in schools and colleges as well as private tuition. His current focus is to introduce more primary school pupils to take up brass instruments, giving them an insight to the wonderful world of music.

Paul is also a regular Course Tutor at both Cambridge Holiday Orchestra and the New London Music Society, as well as Brass Days with his Brass Ensemble - Prime Brass.

Paul currently teaches at Bottisham Village College, Swavesey Village College, Swaffham Prior, Swaffham Bulbeck and has a busy private roster too!

Musical Director

Paul is a Musical Director for several Musical Theatre companies and has conducted around 80 shows, ranging from Youth Company productions with Fledgling Productions, Sawston Youth, and Saffron Walden Youth, to adult companies such as CTC, Festival Players, and Saffron Walden Musical Theatre Company. A lot of these productions have won awards with NODA (National Operatic & Dramatic Association).
